

[C] COMMUNITY CINEMA

FREE COMMUNITY SCREENING EVENT

the Eyes of Me

By Keith Maitland

How do you see yourself, when you can't see at all? At the Texas School for the Blind students juggle all the usual pressures of high school along with the added struggles of growing up blind. Spend a dynamic year with four blind teens learning how to fit in and live independently. Forced to confront the world without sight, they share their inner-visions of the outer world. Ultimately, you cannot understand their perceptions without challenging your own.

Bay Area Community Cinema

Presented by ITVS, KQED,
Oakland Asian Cultural Center, The Oakland Film Office,
HandsOn Bay Area and DEAF Media

Wednesday, February 24th, 2010

Light Reception @ 6:00pm

Screening @ 6:30pm

Post-screening discussion is ASL Interpreted

Please note: the film is 1 hour.

This film is closed-captioned and audio description is available.

To request audio description, email sara_smith@itvs.org.

Oakland Asian Cultural Center

2nd floor of the Pacific Renaissance Plaza in Oakland's Chinatown

388 Ninth Street, Second Floor, Suite 290

(between Franklin and Webster)

Pay Parking is available underground in the Pacific Renaissance Plaza (enter on Webster or Franklin). Street parking is also available- please note: metered parking has recently changed and ends at 6pm in Oakland.

Nearest BART stations are: 12th Street @ Broadway OR Lake Merritt

Screening is FREE and Open to the Public

Kindly RSVP - rsvp@deafmedia.org

WWW.PBS.ORG/INDEPENDENTLENS/EYES-OF-ME